MAKING A CONSTITUTION.

There is not a moment to lose between now and election day, which occurs on the 6th of November. Every Republican should consider himself a committee of one to do whatever is possible in furtherance of the Republican ticket, and the election particularly of our constitutional delegates.

An idea prevails in some quarters that the candidacy for the constitutional convention is not of much importance; that the creation of a fundamental law is a matter of routine, and that the whole constitution can be easily copied from other states, and passed upon without agitation or excitement.

The constitution of the new state will not be a copy of the constitution of any other state. It will be, or should be, a clear-cut document, drawn from the experience of forty-five states, adopting in substance whatever new basic rules for our guidance which have not been in use before. All this will require judgment, experience, intelligence and caution, attributes which each delegate will not fully possess, but whatever is lacking in one may be supplied by another.

Nothing that has ever occurred, or perhaps ever will occur, in this section now known as the Indian Territory will equal in importance the constitutional convention. A law passed by a legislature, if not suitable can be readily changed. Not so a constitution. In one respect it may be likened to the marriage state. A justice of the peace can, by a few words, tie a knot which can only be untied by a grave court procedure. A constitutional provision thoughtlessly placed in that document may possibly cause much mischief, the slow and roundabout way of changing a constitution being a bar to immediate relief. And it is the intention, in the formation of a constitution, that it shall not be easily changed, so that those who do their duty as delegates will have much to occupy their attention, and great responsibility will rest upon their shoulders in the performance of their duty.—Bartlesville Enterprise.

VARDAMAN ON THE INDIAN.

The Oklahoma Democrats should tell Governor Vardaman of Mississippi to be very careful about his mention of Indians hereafter.

When the Republicans hinted some time ago that Mississippi race prejudice extended to Indians, there was hot indignation in the Democratic camp and a telegram and letter of denial from Mississippi's attorney general were published under screaming headlines.

But the governor forgot the plight of the Oklahoma Democracy while being interviewed on his hobby by the Associated Press agent of Chicago Thursday. In discussing his plans to set the senate on edge and overturn the 15th amendment to the constitution (an amendment which resembles a certain commandment in that it is always designated by number), the governor let the cat out of the bag. He said:

"The laws now specifically recognize the difference between the white man and the Indian, the Chinaman, the Esquimo or the Malay. There is just as wide a gap between the white man and the negro."

Shades of Giddings! Just as wide a gap between the white man and the negro as between the white man and Indian. O Mores! O Tempora! O Hades!—McAlester News.

A TIMELY COMMUNICATION.

The communication of Dr. Williams in yesterday's Chieftain in regard to the necessity of sidewalks is certainly timely. Walks are needed, and needed at once. It seems, however, impossible to compel the property-owners to lay them. According to the view of lawyers, the Curtis act giving cities power to compel the laying of walks is so worded as to be practically useless. Vinita, therefore, is no better off than in the past.

Walks are badly needed; but they can be secured only as the property owners voluntarily consent to build them. If any sort of pressure can be brought to bear upon certain selfish property-owners to persuade them to do their duty, the person or persons who can use that pressure ought to get busy at once.

NOT AN ICEBERG.

There's not much talk in Vinita any more about the "human iceberg" theory in regard to Vice President C. W. Fairbanks. Even the Democrats who heard him last night are willing to admit that he is a mighty shrewd politician, and that as a live, warm-blooded campaign orator he ranks with the best.

Henry E. Jones of Tampa, Fla. writes: I can thank God for my present health, due to Foley's Kidney Cure. I tried kidney pills, but nothing doing. I tried cod liver oil till I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back and shoulders. I am 62 years old, and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney medicine. A. P. Owens.

Advice to Housewives
A home is so pleasant, regardless of the comforts that money will buy, as when the entire family is in perfect health. A bottle of Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup costs 50c. It will cure every member of the family of constipation, sick headache or stomach trouble. A. P. Owens.

Result of Neglect
In most cases consumption results from a neglected or improperly treated cold. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and prevents serious results. It costs you no more than the lukewarm preparations and "cure" should last. You are having the genuine in the yellow package. A. P. Owens.

OPEN PUBLISHER THE BEST

GUARANTY OF MERIT.
When the maker of a medicine, sold through drug stores for family use, takes his patients fully into his confidence by frankly and fearlessly publishing broadcast as well as on its bottle wrappers, a full list of all its ingredients in plain English, this action on his part is the best possible evidence that he is not afraid to have the search light of investigation turned full upon his formula and that it will bear the fullest scrutiny and the most thorough investigation. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of the weaknesses, periodical pains and functional derangements of the organs distinctly feminine, is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for women's special use, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence by such open and honest publicity.

A glance at the published ingredients on each bottle wrapper, will show that it is made wholly from native, American, medicinal roots, that it contains no poisonous or habit-forming drugs, no narcotics and no alcohol—purely refined glycerine, of proper strength, being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol, both for extracting and preserving the active medicinal properties found in the roots of the American forest plants employed. It is the only medicine for women's peculiar diseases, sold by druggists, that does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, which is in the long run so harmful to woman's delicate nervous system. Now, glycerine is perfectly harmless, and serves a valuable purpose by possessing intrinsic value all its own, and besides it enhances the curative effect of the other ingredients entering into the "Favorite Prescription."

Some of the ablest medical writers and teachers endorse these views and praise all the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is composed—recommending them for the cure of the very same diseases for which this world-famed medicine is advised. No other medicine for women has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. If interested, send name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his little book of extracts from the works of eminent medical writers and teachers, endorsing the several ingredients and telling just what Dr. Pierce's medicine is made of. It's free for the asking.

A sour stomach, bad breath, a paucity of food and the consequences of a disordered digestion are quickly removed by use of Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets. Two days treatment free. Sold by A. P. Owens 3m DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the original and the same is stamped on every box. Good for eczema, Tetter, boils, cuts and bruises, and especially recommended for piles. Sold by Ma-Harney & Myers and the Peoples Drug Store.

A cold is much more easily cured when the bowels are open. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar opens the bowels and drives the cold out of the system in four or five days. Sold by Ma-Harney & Myers and the Peoples Drug Store.
